Kensington, May 31.

HIS Majesty was pleased this day to declare in Council, That intending to go over to Holland for a short time, He has appointed Thomas Lord Archbishop of Canterbury; John Lord Sommers, Baron of Evesham, Lord Chancellor of England; Thomas Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, Lord President of the Council; John Viscount Lonsdale, Lord Privy-Seal; William Duke of Devonshire, Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household; John Earl of Bridgewater, First Commissioner of the Admiralty; John Earl of Marlborough, Governor to his Highness the Duke of Gloucester; Edward Earl of Jersey, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and Charles Montague Esq; First Commissioner of the Treasury; to be Lords Justices of England for the Administration of the Government during His Majesty's Absence.

Leghorn, May 22. N.S. The Letters from Palermo of the 7th Instant give an Account, that a Felucca was come in there from Sardinia, the Master of which say That on the 2d, Admiral Aylmer, with the Squadron of English Men of War under his Command, came to an Anchor off of Cape Palo, and sailed again the same day for Tunis. Last week sailed from hence the Chetwyn, Capt. Mosherby, and the Speedwel, Capt. Clark, Commanders, both for the Gulph of Venice; and the Elizabeth and Ann, Captain Timothy Paine, and the Amity, Captain Thomas Young, bound for London; The Sarah, Captain John Williams Commander, put to Sea last night, being bound for Alexandria, and the Shrewsbury, Captain Goddard, is departed for Tunis. The Marquess of Tavistock, who is travelling in these Parts, came hither last week, and was by the Great Duke's Order lodged in the Prince's Palace; The Marquis del Borro, General of the Great Duke's Forces, and Governor of Leghorn, visited his Lordship, and having splendidly entertained him at Dinner, carried him to the Mould, where he was saluted by the English Ships in this Port; And his Lordship has since left this Place, intending to go to Pisa, and thence to Genoa.

Venice, May 22. Signior Ruzzini arrived here last Sunday from Vienna, and on Monday went to the Senate, and gave an Account of his Negotiations in his late Embassies to the Imperial Court, and at the Treaty of Carlowitz. Cardinal Ottoboni is shortly expected here from Rome. The Letters from Spalatro of the 9th Instant say, that Signior Grimani, Commissioner from this Republic for settling the Limits between the Venetian and Turkish Territories, having received Advice, that Osman Aga, Sceleter or Sword-bearer to the Sultan, who is appointed to confer with him as Commissioner from the Port, was arrived at Traunick in Bosnia, he dispatched Colonel Alberti with a Droggerman to agree with him about the Time and Place of their Meeting, and the Manner in which they should hold their Conferences; but the Colonel met at Singh some Turkish Officers, who were coming to the Venetian Commissioner on the like Account, with whom he returned to Spalatro, and Signior Grimani having adjusted all Matters with them, the Turks were returned to Traunick; And Signior Grimani was preparing to leave Spalatro, in order to repair to the Place of Conference.

Warsaw, May 20. Several of the Provincial Diets have sent Deputies to the King of Poland, to desire he will send home the Saxon Forces that are in this Kingdom, and it's said, the King has promised to comply with their Desire; Upon which, they are returned home very well satisfied. The Sieur Van Bauchling, and the Sieur Bryer, both Members of the Council of Saxony, who came hither to receive the King's Orders touching the Affairs of that Electorate, are on their departure from hence for Prusen. Our last Letters from Lemberg say, they had Advice, that all Things were preparing at Cominiet for the Evacuating of that Place, and that the Crown-General and the other Commissioners who are appointed to take Possession of it, where on their Journey thither.

Vienna, May 23. The Imperial Court came this evening from Luxembourg to Favorita, and will be to morrow here in Town; and their Imperial Majesties intend the next day to return to Luxembourg. The Count de Paar, who was appointed to go and Compliment the Elector of Bavaria in the Name of the Emperor on the Death of the Electoral Prince his Son, being fallen sick, Count Anthony of Dietrichstein is ordered to go thither in his Place. An Envoy arrived here this week from the Duke of Savoy, to notify the Birth of his Son the Prince of Piedmont. The Marquis de Villars, Envoy Extraordinary from France, has congratulated the King and Queen of the Romans on their Marriage; which Compliment had been delayed thus long, by reason of the Differences that happened between the High-Steward to the Arch-Duke and the said Envoy, who did not come to Court till the same was accommodated. The Count de Mansfeldt, who went some time ago to Presburg, is returned hither. It's said, the Emperor's Journey's to Hungary is put off till the latter end of the next Month; and that the King of the Romans will accompany him, intending to visit the fortified Places in that Kingdom. Prince Eugene of Savoy is preparing to go thither, to give Directions, as well for the finishing of the new Fortress that was begun last Summer by his Order near Arat, as for adding some new Works to the Fortifications of Buda, Esssek, and Peters Waradin. The Count de Zedenicki, who has resided some time at the Court of Poland as Envoy from the Emperor, arrived here this week, and has
